TWO FIRST MIDWEST LEADERS HONORED ON CRAIN'S CHICAGO'S NOTABLE EXECUTIVES IN MARKETING LIST

CHICAGO, IL, September 28, 2020 – First Midwest Bank today announced that two of its marketing executives are featured on Crain's Notable Executives in Marketing list, which profiles accomplished marketing executives in the Chicago area.

Jim Stadler is an executive vice president and Chief Marketing and Communications Officer at First Midwest and has more than 30 years' experience in marketing and advertising. He is responsible for marketing, corporate communications, customer relationship management and client experience across the bank. He is actively involved in several professional organizations, including the Commonwealth Club of Chicago, the Association of National Advertisers and the Chicago Economic Club.

Lisa Randall is a senior vice president and the Marketing Director for First Midwest, where she leads the strategic marketing efforts for the bank's Consumer, Commercial, Wealth and Small Business groups.

"Jim and Lisa are highly skilled marketing professionals whose contributions have helped First Midwest deepen our client relationships, grow our business, increase customer loyalty and strengthen our brand across the Midwest," said Mark Sander, President and Chief Operating Officer of First Midwest Bank. "We are grateful for their leadership, passion and commitment to our clients, colleagues and community."
